Q.1 Read the following passage and answer the questions : 10

Once the Maharaja wanted to appoint a royal physician. He sent his announcers far and wide asking practising physicians to present themselves at the king's court on certain day.

This was a golden opportunity for the physicians. They flocked in large numbers to the king's court on that day. One by one, each one of them came forward and rolled out a long list of his qualifications and experience. Everyone was trying to prove how he was the only one fit for the post.

Now the Maharaja was in a fix. He could not decide who among them was the best. So he called upon Gopal to solve the problem.
